

ALEXANDRIA.

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 30

The Secretary of the Treasury, in reply to an invitation to a dinner tendered him by prominent citizens of Boston on the 22d instant, regrets his inability to attend, and makes a few remarks upon financial matters. He says that the bounties to soldiers, preparations for the Indian war, the intended large issue of bonds to the Pacific Railroad, and other liberal appropriations for miscellaneous purposes, together with the partial failure of the wheat and corn crops, the tardiness of reconstruction in the South, the reduced taxes and general duliness in trade, will prevent a reduction, and probably induce an increase in the national debt for some time. He gives four reasons for not contracting the currency at the present time, but says that he is as much in favor of that policy as ever.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: "An energetic effort is made by the impeachment party, and Mr. Samner and others, to bring a sufficient number of members of Congress here in July to form a quorum of both houses. Mr. Sumner says he only remains here himself to help to make up that quorum, and, if possible, pass a law to give colored suffrage in the Northern States and in the Territories. Thirty three letters to members were sent off yesterday by the impeachment party, urging them to come on, and a large number have been written to by Mr. Sumner, who urges them to come in aid of his suffrage proposition '

The Mexicans did right to reject the attempt made by the French to force Maximilian upon them, and to contend against foreign interference with their government when it was not asked. But, it is really more than probable that, had Maximilian been permitted to rule quietly in Mexico, the country would have been more quiet and orderly than it is likely to be under any of the chiefs of the factions which compose what is called the "Liberal"

The government of Great Britain has done well and wisely, in not suffering life to be taken, in the case of the Fenians lately tried. "Bloody instructions" always, sooner or later, "return to plague the inventors"-and the magnanimity and power of a great nation are shown conspicnously when it exercises clemency. When a government has the courage to exhibit elemency it proves its power and its conviction of its own stability.

The writ of error granted in the case of the confiscation of Mr. Joseph Bruin's property, has again called public attention to the course of Judge Underwood, in this and similar matters, touching the seizure and sale of property, under the direction of the U S. District Court of Virginia during the late war. Some verry severe comments are made in the New York World, Boston Post and various other

Mr. Thaddeus Stevens's last confiscation letter shows that his venom is embittered and that he persists in his determination to continue his efforts further to oppress and annoy. His accusations about "outrages" and "burn-

MILITARY INTERFERENCE -At the March term of the Charles City county court a colored man named A. Davis was arraigned for canvassing the county and buying cattle, contrary to law. He was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of thirty dollars and the costs of the in the sum of ten thousand dollars. prosecution. He left the county and came to this city. A few days since John W. Wright, sheriff of Richmond, received from the clerk of Charles City county court a capias pro fine, ordering him to arrest Davis and hold him in his custody until the fine and cost be raid. He obeyed the order of the writ; and on yesterday received a notice from the officer in charge of the Freedmen's Bureau, directing him to suspend further proceedings in the case until an investigation can be had. This is the first instance in this city in which the military authorities have interfered with the proceedings of the civil courts since the commencement of the new regime.—Richmond

ADVICE. - Some of the radical leaders are now trying to enlist the Southern people in their party, or to drive them to something that will rekindle the cooling passions of the Northern masses. We feel confident the Southern people are not to be seared into the support of their appressors and the authors of our country's ruin; and we trust they will also show that they are not to be driven to acts of desperation by designing politicians, who are seeking their destruction. A firm, manly course is the only safe one to pursue. Let us obey the laws strictly, never forget our oaths to for Admiral Smith, United States navy. support the Constitution of the United States, the radical party, nor give them just cause for terday, charged with embezzling $15,000 worth turther oppression. - Fincastle Herald.

THE MARYLAND CONSTITUTIONAL CONVEN-TION. -Yesterday the Convention got through with the article in the bill of rights on the subject of slavery. For the words of the original ling for two or three days. report-"Slavery shall not be permitted in this State"-the following was substituted by a vote of 78 to 24: "Art. 24. That slavery shall not be re-established in this State, but having been abolished under the policy and authority of the United States, compensation in consideration thereof is due from the United States."

There is said to be great excitement in Montana in consequence of outrages by the Indians, and the of the Governor of the Territory.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

To show the very age and body of the times.

A terrific hailstorm occurred near Dubuque, Iowa, on Friday, which injured the crops .-Hailstones of immense size are said to have fallen. One man picked up some as "large as his fist," another found one an inch and a half them in using so large an amount of its rein diameter, and plenty of them as large as hens' eggs were picked up. The Dubuque Times says: "Poultry of all kinds were killed of being one of its depositaries. by them, and a pair of horses are said to have been knocked down in the road. The hail fell to an average depth of four inches."

John G. Ryan, who was arrested and con fined in 1864, as the supposed John II. Surratt is now on his way, to Washington to prosecute those who arrested him. The circumstances connected with his case were peculiarly aggravating. He was arrested in Memphis in July, and taken in chains to Washington. Afterwards, for some unaccrutable cause, he was removed to Vicksburg, and confined there until the following November.

For several days past there has been considerable difficulty in Baltimore county, Md. between the Baltimore County Marble Com pany and its employees, the latter refusing to work under an overseer employed by the former, and attempting to prevent others from working in their places. On Sunday some riotous proceedings occurred, which resulted in the burning of a building used as a stable and shanty.

Henry Miller has been arrested in Cleveland, Ohio, charged with bigamy. Thirty-two years ago he was married in Germany, but after a few years ran away to London with another woman, whom he married. Subsequently they came to this country and located in Cleveland, where Miller, now an old man, has recently married a niece of wife No. 2. He is in jail to answer a charge of bigamy.

Great distress prevails among the inhabitants along the Gulf and river St Lawrence, owing to the failure of the crops, and the partial failure of the fisheries last season. It is said that many families are in a starving condition. Aid has been asked from the government, and a reply received that the matter was under consideration.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

The National Bank of Virginia in Richmond at the instance of its Board of Directors, has ceased to be a depository of the U. S. Government funds. The Board have found, after an experience of two years, that the balances kept by the Government on deposit do not justify sources in that manner as is required to indemnify the Treasury Department for the privilege

Yesterday, a deed of sale was made in Richmond, transferring the costumes, parapherna lia, etc., and right of the performance of the Black Crook, to Robert Eberle, for the sum of $1,500. The right to perform extends over the States of New Jersey, Penusylvania, West Virginia, and portions of Virginia.

The quality of the coal of the Kanawha mines is superior to that of any other on this continent. The area of the Kanawha coal basin is about 18,000 square miles; 16,000 are in West Virginia, and only 2,000 in Virginia. This basin has the deep fourteen and ten-feet veins of cannel and splint coal.

The contract for building three small iron steamers for the State of Virginia, has been awarded by Wm. F. Taylor, auditor, to the Tredegar Iron Works, of Richmond. The steamers are to be used by the State inspectors in collecting the oyster tax, and are to be finished in three months.

We are sorry to learn that some of our farmers will have much of their corn land to re plant. In some cases, in the lower counties, the young corn has been cut off by the worm, and in others the ground became so baked that the tender blade could not force itz way through.

At Bedford court, Manday, as we learn from the Lyncoburg Republican, the people were addressed by the Hon. Robert Ridgway, on registering and reconstructing. The points he introduced were mainly those made in his speech at Amberst court two weeks ago.

A fight occurred at Danville, yesterday, between members of the U. S. Burial Corps and the Legroes of Danville. Bricks and pistols were used, and the burial corps were driven out of town. Two were wounded on each side. A prominent lawyer of Richmond has on file in his office the names of twenty-five persons

FROM EUROPE. - In the British House of Commons last night, the borough franchise was settled on the basis of household suffrage. Compounding has been practically atolished. The tenant pays his rates personally, instead of through his landlord, and thereby is entitled to vote. The county franchise was settled as follows: The occupants of lands or tenements worth twelve pounds per annum are to have the right to vote. The government proposes a standard of £15 valuation, but the liberals wanted to make it £10; and the House finally of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was dangerously adopted a compromise on the basis of £12 val-

The government had determined upon carryout the law against the Fenians to its utmost rigor; but in view of the universal sentiment of the people and the press, and fearing that the Fenians might resort to measures of revenge, it was at last compelled to remit the sentence of Burke. The cabinet recommended the commutation on Saturday, and the Queen assented to it at a late hour last night. In both houses of Parliament last night the announcement was received with cheers. In the House of Lords Earl Derby said he could see no palliative circumstances in the case of Borke, but his sentence had been remitted because the government had received the overwhelming testimony of the Irish people that it would be politic not to allow the law to take

ANSWER TO AN ATHEIST. - A writer illustrating the fact that some errors are lifted into importance by efforts to refute them, when they need to be treated with contempt and ridicule, observes that all the blows inflicted by the Herculean club of certain logicians, are not half so effectual as a box on the car of a celebrated atheist by the hand of some charming beauty. After having in vain preached to a circle of ladies, he attempted to avenge himof Bishop Whittingham, Rev. Dr. McKenney self by saying: "Pardon my error, ladies, I did not imagine that in a house where wit lives with grace, I alone should have the honor of not believing in God." "You are not alone, sir" answered the mistress of the house,-"My horse, my dog, and my cat, share the honor with you: only these poor brutes have the good sense not to boast of it.'

MILITARY VS. CIVIL. - We observe an order from Gen. Schofield, in the Culpeper Observer, directed to James W. Green and James Barbour, directing them to suspend the sale of certain property, which had been ordered by the Circuit Court of Culpeper. The defendant is W. D. Wallach, the editor of the Radical newspaper in Washington, known as the Star. It is a matter of very great regret to see the action of our courts annulled, but there is no help for it. It is the first ease of which we have been apprised of in Virginia. - Rich. Enq.

INQUIRIES ABOUT LAND .- The land agents in this State, and especially in this city, are receiving numerous letters making inquiries about lands. Yesterday one of the most prominent firms engaged in this business received in one mail letters from New Jersey, Delaware, table. and Pennsylvania, mading inquiries. These indications show that much interest is excited concerning the lands in Virginia; and there must ere long be large sales to new comers .-Richmond Dispatch.
